Players and Members' Code of Conduct as operated by Sudbury Cricket Club

As a player and member of Sudbury and District Cricket Club, you will be expected to uphold the principles of the code of conduct detailed below. Breach of these may result in disciplinary action being taken against you, which could result in you being expelled from the Club.

All players and members of Sudbury and District Cricket Club will:

- Follow the ECB "Code of Conduct and Spirit of Cricket", copies of which are displayed on the notice board and in the changing rooms.
- Be aware at all times, that you represent Sudbury and District Cricket Club and as such, you will be judged on your behaviour, attitude and standards of play.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person within the context of Cricket
- Treat everyone equally and not discriminate on the grounds of age, gender, disability, race, ethnic origin, nationality, colour, parental or marital status, religious belief, class or social background, sexual preference or political belief
- Not condone, or allow to go unchallenged, any form of discrimination if witnessed
- Display high standards of behaviour
- Promote the positive aspects of Cricket e.g. fair play
- Encourage all participants to learn the Laws and rules and play within them, respecting the decisions of match officials
- Actively discourage unfair play, rule violations and arguing with match officials
- Recognise good performance not just match results
- Place the well-being and safety of Young People above the development of performance
- Ensure that activities are appropriate for the age, maturity, experience and ability of the individual
- Respect Young People's opinions when making decisions about their participation in Cricket
- Not smoke, drink or use banned substances whilst actively working with Young People in the Club
- Not provide Young People with alcohol when they are under the care of the Club
- Follow ECB guidelines set out in the "Safe Hands – Cricket's Policy for Safeguarding Children" and any other relevant guidelines issued
- Report any concerns in relation to a Young Person, following reporting procedures laid down by the ECB

Members and guests include all members and officers of the cricket club and all guests of those members and officers, as well as all individuals who watch / attend / participate / officiate in matches hosted by the club in whatever capacity.
