Abdo protectors (Cricket Boxes) and box briefs

In the interests of safety and hygiene, all male players must have their own cricket boxes and box briefs/jock straps. They must be worn for batting practice and also when playing matches. In the interests of personal safety, members will not be allowed to play without the correct protective equipment.

The club also has a range of other equipment that can be used at coaching sessions and matches for those who do not possess their own. Please ask your coach if you need anything.

Ed joins the team

We are pleased to announce that Ed Rainsford will be our new professional coach for 2014.

He is a right arm medium fast bowler and right hand batsman with 242 first class wickets to his name at an average of 20.14 including a career best 5 for 36 against Ireland in Harare in September 2010.
